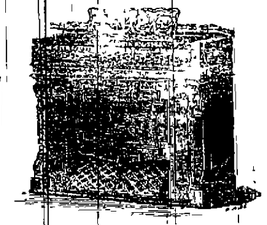
AMERICAN ORGANS

MANUFACTORY,

Tremont, opposite Waltham St.,

BOSTON, MASS.



The most perfect and beautiful Musical Instrument in the world for the American Home Circle.

THE AMERICAN ORGAN makes Home Attractive, and refines and elevates the minds of all. Beautiful in its appearance and effects.

Seventeen---17---First Premiums were awarded to the American Organs IN THE MONTH OF OCTOBER, 1865, over all Competitors, at different State and County Fairs.

First Premium awarded to the American Organs at the Great New York State Agricultural Fair at Rochester, September 1864, over the Whole catalogue exhibited by the most Celebrated Makers.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS are the ONLY REAL REED ORGANS now before the public.—The only Organ having a REVERBERATING SOUND BOX or WIND CHEST—which has the same important part to perform as the Sounding Board has in a Piano Forte (to give body and resonance of tone) and without which the Organ becomes merely a Melodeon in an Organ case. The American Organs not only have the Wind-Chest, or Sound-Box but have the large Organ Bellows, giving power and great steadiness of tone. These with their extreme fine voicing of the Reeds and perfecting of the tone, make them the MOST PERFECT ORGAN KNOWN. Then, in fulness of workmanship, finish of action, and case, they excel all others. These great improvements and superiority of tone and workmanship of the AMERICAN ORGANS place them in the first rank as the best, and command a higher price than any other reed instrument in the market A careful examination of them, in comparison with others, will quickly show their superiority.

Special attention is called to the style of AMERICAN ORGAN, No. 17, containing the Super-Octave Coupler and Sub-Bass. FOR CHURCHES in want of a powerful instrument, whose means are limited its price renders it very desirable.

EVERY ORGAN IS WARRANTED TO PROVE SATISFACTORY.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS all have the Reverberating Sound-Box, or Wind-Chest, and are finished in the highest style of art, in Rosewood, Jet Walnut, and Oak finish, richly Varnished and Polished, or in Smooth Oil Finish, forming elegant pieces of Furniture for the Parlor or Boudoir; and the Oak and Walnut especially adapted for Churches, Lecture and Lodge Rooms.

THE AMERICAN ORGANS are all finished with our new PATENT improvements, containing the improved Knee Swell, Double Bellows, two Blow Pedals, and TREMOLO found in no other instrument

NEW STYLES OF CASES.

Richly Finished and Highly Ornamented.

MUTTY'S

Friction Feed Roller,

FOR CIRCULAR SAWS.

PATENTED JANUARY 23d, 1866.

THIS INVENTION is applicable to all Circular Saws provided with stationary tables and used for re-sawing lumber.

It reduces the labor of sawing one half, and fifty per cent more lumber can be sawed with, than without its use. It is applied without change of existing machinery; is not liable to get out of repair, and not expensive to apply.

It has been in practical use on the Penobscot river for one year, where the above facts have been fully and satisfactorily demonstrated, as is shown by the certificates of master mill-men, machinists, owners and operators of mills appended hereto.

The undersigned have for the past season witnessed the practical use of MUTTY'S FEED ROLLER in re-sawing lumber, and we cheerfully recommend it as a practical, economical, and labor saving invention, destined to come into general use in all cases where lumber is re-sawed upon stationary tables. We are fully satisfied from our own observation that the saving effected, and extra amount cut, by its use, is fully as large as the estimate above given.

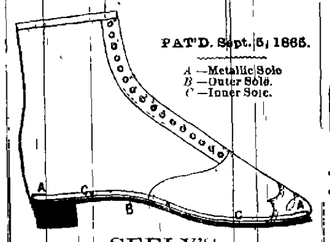
TAKE CARE OF YOUR LIFE!



SEELY'S

Patent Metallic Sole.

A NEW INVENTION.

WETTING THE FEET is the most prolific cause of disease and death known to humanity. It is almost sure to bring on a cold, and colds, neglected, and often when not neglected, lead to fevers or to coughs and fatal consumptions. It is in recognition of this truth that the inventive talent of the country has for years been devising some method, or attempting to devise it, for keeping the feet dry, and yet that should not give inconvenience to the wearer Rubber shoes, in one form or another, have hitherto been our reliance, but it is well known, as among their many evils, that while they keep the feet dry from external moisture, they sweat them overmuch, and by thus inducing an undue tenderness increase a susceptibility to colds rather than otherwise The are also cumbersome to the feet, and withal are very expensive. The demand is for something that shall make the ordinary Boot and shoe impervious to water, without effecting their elegance or durability, and, if possible, without adding sensibly to the cost of manufacture These, it will be conceded, are most important features, and we confidently affirm that they are absolutely attained in the invention herewith presented to the public.

The in vention consists in inserting between the inner and outer sole, when the boot is making, a thin METALLIC PLATE, exceedingly ductile, combining flexibility with toughness, very light, and every way adapted to the end desired, while the additional expense is merely nominal. It forms the a perfect barrier against the admission of wet or dampness, though the feet may be exposed ever so long upon wet pavements or damp ground.

To ladies and children the METALLIC SOLES will be of incalculable value, as from them habits of life and delicacy of dress, they are particularly exposed to the long train of ills that attend upon and inadequate protection to the feet

These Soles have already been tried by the best of all tests, ACTUAL USE, and the testimonials to their merits, freely proffered, indicate that they must be speedily and univer ally adopted by the public The Patent Metallic Soled Boots and Shoes are being introduced into the leading Boot and Shoe Stores throughout the United States, and will supplant all forms of overshoes, except possibly for deep mud and snow as they become known. Before to get them and no other. If your shoemaker does not happen to have them, he can procure them without difficulty If he will not, remit the required sum to the inventor one dollar and thirty cents, and obtain six pair, assorted sizes, with right to use, which will be promptly forwarded by mail or express, pre-paid, and which can be made up by any shoemaker in the country. Agencies will be established in every city and village, and supplied with Soles and proprietary stamps, at schedule prices, and liberal commission allowed on sales. Also General Agencies for States appointed on application, with proper testimonials to the inventor.

Samuel J. Seely,

General Depot, corner City Hall Place and Read street, New York.

TESTIMONIALS

The undersigned has for the past six months worn Boots and Shoes possessing Mr. Seely's METALLIC SOLE, and find them to be an effectual preventive against dampness and the colds so often taken from damp feet, most gladly do we testify to the perfect efficiency of their service. The Metallic Sole is not only a grand contribution to the cause of general health, but a positive luxury, obviating all necessity of India Rubber shoes, except in muddy weather All ordinary dampness, and even water upon pavements, is completely foiled of its power of harm by this most simple and useful invention. No one who has once used them will ever be without them again, as they increase the cost of boots and shoes by a sum which is scarcely worth naming, and insure, positively, dry feet, which is reckoned among the first conditions of health and comfort We heartily commend the "Metallic Sole" to all the sensible

J. CLEMENT FRENCH,
Pastor Central Cong. Church Brooklyn
MARY J. FRENCH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1865.

SAMUEL J. SEELY, Esq.

Dear Sir—In reply to your inquiries regarding your Patent Metallic Sole, I take great pleasure in stating that I had them put in a pair of fine calf skin boots, which I wore the whole of last winter in the wet streets of Albany. I have had them half soled since, and am wearing your Metallic Soles now, with full intention never to be without them. I have not had a wet or damp foot during the whole time I have worn them. I pronounce them the best insole yet made. I am satisfied that no person having once worn them will do without them—Wishing you the success you deserve for so valuable an invention for the preservation of health,

I remain truly yours,
SAMUEL JEFFERSON,
Contractor, New York.

MR SAMUEL J. SEELY:

Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in offering my testimony to the usefulness and comfort of your Patent Metallic Sole. I have used a pair of boots for the past seven months, furnished with the Sole and feel no hesitation in saying that I have never worn shoes that combined so perfectly the desirable qualities of dryness and durability.

EMMA OVERTON, Brooklyn, New York.

S. J. SEELY, Esq.

Dear Sir—In answer to your request, I am pleased to state that I have manufactured shoes containing your Metallic Sole by machinery. I think them a superior article for keeping the feet dry. In manufacturing them there is no trouble from putting the thread when sewing, nor any difficulty in putting them in the shoes. Respectfully yours

Practical Shoe Manufacturer.

THE GRIMES AMENDMENT The following is the new representation amendment agreed upon by the committee of Union Senators, which it is thought will command the requisite two thirds in both branches of Congress

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within the Union according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, including Indians not taxed, but whenever in any State the elective franchise shall be denied to any portion of its male citizens above the age of twenty-one years, except for crime or disloyalty, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion of the male citizens over twenty one years of age

A GAY ROOSTER. There is in New York a gentleman of ample fortune, which he received by inheritance, and who has never inflicted upon himself any occupation, except that of sensibly spending and enjoying his income Notwithstanding this, he does not ignore his plebian origin or affect aristocratic notions, as his recent selection of a cont of arms for a new carriage at the urgent request of his wife will show The lady, thinking, the old carriage unfashionable, got the ready consent of her husband for a new one; and was anxious that the "family" cost-of-arms should be emblazoned upon its panels This the husband consented to, promising to sketch them out for the painter when the vehicle was completed

At that time the lady promptly presented herself for his sketch of the family arms

Taking a pen, the millionaire drew something resembling a small mound; by it was stuck a manure fork, and upon the fork was perched Chanticleer, rampant.

"Why, what is this?" asked madam, in amazement.

"This," said the man of money, "is our cost-of-arms. My grandfather made his money carting manure in Brooklyn, and invested it in real estate in New York. Now listen to the explanation of the arms. This mound and fork represent my grandfather's occupation; the cock perched upon the top of the fork represents myself, who have done nothing but flap my wings and crow over it ever since."

More Testimony.

The enemies of freedom charge the Reconstruction Committee of Congress with taking evidence of the condition of the South only from those who are in "government pay", and who will represent things in the very worst light possible for the recent rebel States. This charge has been promptly refuted. The committee has been fair and impartial in their reception and examination of witnesses. But there is valuable corroborative evidence received in almost every large city or town of the North, to the general truth of the evidence received by that committee. This evidence is received almost daily through private letters to individuals—not intended for publication—and the truthfulness of which, coming from eye-witnesses who have nothing to do with "government", cannot be gainsayed. We give to-day one or two letters of this kind.

The first is an extract of one received by a gentleman in this city from the President's own State—a letter written mostly for private and business purposes, but in which the writer cannot refrain from expressing his feelings in regard to public affairs. It was not intended for publication, and was handed to us without solicitation. The letter is from Memphis, Tenn., of a recent date. We give an extract as follows:

"The political condition of this part of the country will no doubt interest you, for I am aware that the matter is not correctly known. I do not think I am the person to do such a subject justice; but one can not be here a long time and not see that this matter of a 'reconstructed South' is about the greatest humbug that the people of the United States have yet had to deal with.—The South is no more reconstructed in feeling now than it was a year ago; in fact, it is not so near it as just after the war ended—a seeming contradiction, but you know just what I mean—it is the general impression North* that the South ought to be taken back into the Union because they have 'denounced the confederacy' rebel debt, &c., &c. Why have they done it? Because they could not help it—not because they love the government, not because they respect the North or are actuated by any feeling that a patriot ought to possess. To-day they are as bitter and malignant as Satan himself. They embrace every opportunity to insult a Yankee, to divide the army, and, so far as they dare, curse the government.—This week the National Airs played in the theater of this city were hissed to silence, and the air 'Bonny Blue Flag', rebel, was cheered to the echo. I would as soon have thought of going into Mississippi and Alabama, some parts, two years ago, as I would to-day. No Northern man is safe to go there. A gentleman told me, who has just come from a tour therein, that he saw on the cars a black soldier's gun taken from him, his face slapped, and himself kicked from the cars, while the passengers looked on and applauded. You cannot think how they hate they hate the soldiers, and anything that reminds them of their defeat. I confess it looks dark here to every well-wisher of his country. It is daily growing worse. The veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill was received with delight by every rebel in the South, and they are determined to stand by the President—how far? Just so far as he favors them, and no farther! This is reiterated in all their public meetings and their journals. The papers are as bitter as they dare be and be tolerated. What is their hope? They firmly believe the day not far distant when, united with the copperheads of the North, they shall be the majority in Congress, and 'Then', they say, 'God pity you Yankees'. They have not been half whipped. To-day, walking these streets, you will find vile denouncers of the Yankee or anything he may do or say, while the pistol and bowie-knife may be seen as in the 'good old days' when peace smiled on the land. But I must close. I have in this hasty manner tried to give you evidence of the 'situation,' but I have not told you all. I am not able."

NOTE. *Not general by any means.—Ed.

FLORIDA. A letter from Jacksonville, Florida, to the Lewiston Journal says:—"Spring now opens. Orange and plum trees are in blossom, and planting begins. I wish I could say that the people are as rapidly growing in patriotism. It is useless to deny that the majority of the people in Florida are citizens of the United States, simply because they are compelled to be. Large numbers, and most of the educated class look at things partly in a proper light and acknowledging their defeat, will make the best of it. They will yield obedience to law, welcome northern immigration, and do their part to repair the waste of war. But not one in a hundred of these even are willing to do justice to the negro. While, as I have said, the mass of the people through the State are unrepentant and bitter toward the 'damned Yankees!' An independent Northern man disposed to assert his rights, is not entirely safe in the interior. Several cases of violence have occurred. Here, however, such is not the case. Yankees are monarchs of all they survey, though many here are as rebellious as ever, yet the Northern men and repentant rebs are the majority. I heard a returned rebel soldier say not long since, that if the United States and France were to have war, he would quickly go over to the French, and fight the Yankees again, and he knew plenty of others who would do the same.

It is not the work of a moment to become a loyal citizen from a rebel. Whether these States are in the Union or out, whether they be 'States' or 'Territories,' I trust Congress will have every necessary guarantee before they are again represented at Washington. I hope they will be kept upon the anxious seats until they are thoroughly converted.

A few weeks ago a negro on a slight provocation, was killed by a white man, at noon, in the principal street of the town. Though many were near and must have seen it, the Coroner's Jury sitting on their oaths over the dead body, and examining witnesses testifying on their oaths, brought in a verdict of 'Came to his death by the hand of some person unknown.' Whether the United States authorities will take the matter in hand, is yet to be seen. The murderer is well known, and was for a time imprisoned at the guard house. There is no doubt that Florida and her laws need 'Reconstruction.'

Kentucky.

"Dixon" in a recent despatch to the Boston Daily Advertiser says:

The debate in the House amendatory of the Habeas Corpus Act, providing for the protection of Federal officers and soldiers from arrest for certain acts during the war, was quite spirited, and brought out incidentally some very interesting and important evidence as to the temper of the conquered rebels of Kentucky.

After Mr. Rogers of New Jersey had poured out his wrath against the bill in a voluble and rattling speech, Mr. McKee of Kentucky took the floor, and in the course of a brief and eloquent speech in support of the measure, alluded to the difference of feeling manifested by its opponents towards the late rebels and loyal men. The opponents of the bill, he said, were quick to declare their readiness to forgive and forget all that had been done during the war by the enemies of the country in their efforts to overthrow the government and destroy the nation, while they were not willing to protect loyal men from persecution for acts of loyalty. This was the state of affairs in Kentucky at the present time, and the speaker asked that the bill should pass as a protection for the men of the Border States who had perilled their all in defence of the Union. Mr. McKee said the only two men now confined in Kentucky for offences during the war were two Union officers, and that three thousand suits against Union soldiers were pending in the courts.

Mr. Garfield of Ohio mentioned a case in point, now pending in Mr. McKee's own district, stating that a Union soldier, who, during the war, assisted in capturing a party of guerillas and in depriving them of their horses, was now under indictment for taking the property of those rebels.

Mr. Harding of Kentucky—Will the gentleman from Ohio give us the name of the man under indictment?

Mr. Garfield—I will give no information that will place the blood-hounds of secession on his track.

Mr. Harding—In what court is he indicted?

Mr. Garfield—I will give no clue which will endanger the life and property of my friend.

Mr. Smith of Kentucky now made a few remarks in support of the bill, and alluded to other instances of persecution of Union men. "If," said he, "Kentucky prefers to give protection to rebels, the Government should prefer to give protection to Union men." His heart, he said, was full of forgiveness, and he would extend the largest leniency to rebels, if they would hereafter behave themselves. But when he found them raising the stiletto against Union men, he would let them know that he was in the ranks again with the red, white and blue, ready to whip them until they behave themselves.

After Mr. Ross of Illinois had stated his reasons for supporting the bill, the question was taken by yeas and nays, and the bill was passed by 112 to 31; Messrs. Smith and Rosseau of Kentucky, who have of late been suspected of an undue tenderness toward secessionists, voting with the majority.

LETTER FROM JOSHUA HILL. The members of the Georgia Legislature who voted for Alexander H. Stephens for United States Senator, have published a letter representing Mr. S. to have been as good a Unionist as Hon. Joshua Hill. Mr. Hill has replied, showing that his record is infinitely the better of the two, exposing the sinister designs of the Stephens men. He concludes as follows:

You are all satisfied that I am powerless in Georgia, but you are not so well assured that your condemnation of me is destructive of my influence at Washington. It becomes necessary now to insure that. You may succeed in convincing those who control the government that the organization of a stupendous rebellion to overthrow the Constitutional Government of your country, the sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of valuable lives lost in trying to maintain the supreme authority, together with the slaughtered thousands cruelly seduced or driven to take arms as insurgents, is a light affair. You may, by ingenious argumentation, prove that the men most to be trusted by the Government are those most prominently and conspicuously identified with the rebel government; the men whose names must live in history more on account of the high places they occupied in the rebel government than for anything else they ever did in the service of their lawful government. But when you succeed in all this, then cover over with a thick veil the niches in your capital that may contain the statues of Washington, Jackson, Webster, and Clay, and forbid your countrymen to look upon them again. Then will the revolution prove a triumph and the Union become a phantom.

EIGHTEEN PERSONS POISONED TO DEATH. The Grand Rapids (Michigan) Gazette reports that eighteen lumbermen were recently poisoned to death in the town of Lisbon, by their cook mistaking a paper of strychnine for saleratus and mixing up some bread with it, of which they ate and were killed. The strychnine was brought to their camp by a trapper who designed it to poison the meat with which he baited his traps for wild animals. It had been carelessly placed upon a shelf.

THE SEA ISLANDS. The Charleston Courier reports that the relations between the freedmen and the former owners of plantations on the Sea Islands are improving every day. The former are entering into contracts, and the prospect is encouraging that everything will be shortly reduced to a harmonious and profitable system of labor and living.

MUSIC.

I have the pleasure of informing those who were members of SIGNOR BORRA'S Music Class in this city last season, and all who desire to secure a thorough education in Music in the shortest period possible, that he has consented to return, and resume the instruction of Music, under the celebrated "Cheve System," as soon as a sufficient class shall be formed, and it is desirable that the course should commence as soon as possible, for his engagements will make it necessary for him to return to New York early in the fall.

It may be said for the information of those unacquainted with the system of Music taught by Signor Borra that it is considered much superior to the common mode of teaching, and his pupils obtain a knowledge of Music in a very short time comparatively, and also that the study of Music, according to this system is very pleasant and healthy for children as young as ten years, as well as for adults.

TELEGRAPHIC TO THE Whig & Courier.

Washington Matters!

Interesting Letter Respecting Mexican Affairs.

Report that the President will Veto the Civil Rights Bill.

A Severe Storm Throughout the West.

Another Destructive Fire in the Oil Regions.

WASHINGTON, March 22.

The President sent an immense bulk of documents to the House to-day, covering all Mexican affairs from 1864 up to the present time, nearly all of which has heretofore been published.

Romero, March 9th, 1866, transmits to Secretary Seward a copy of a letter dated Paris, Feb. 19th, the writer of which he says is worthy of confidence, and the sources from which he derives his knowledge authentic. The letter is as follows:

I have derived from a personal conversation with a high functionary of the French empire, the following facts.

That at the last two conferences of the councils of ministers, it was decided to try a middle course in the Mexican question, which gives those ministers disquiet, who have been for the simple withdrawal of the French forces. It seems that this middle course consists in forming in Mexico and France, an American party which is to hoist as a new standard the departure of Maximilian, and the reestablishment of the republic with Bazanie as President ad interim. Thus it is thought to stop the troubles with the United States. Absurb as this project may appear there is no room to doubt its existence. The news comes borne out by various antecedents and the invincible repugnance which Napoleon feels toward withdrawing his troops without dissembling the rumor which is afloat that Bazanie is working for himself in Mexico, and the project being the theme of all the French employees and functionaries who have for some time been informing Napoleon that the French army is looked on favorably by the Americans, and that what they dislike, is the monarchy and the incompetence of Maximilian. So I have read from private letters which assure me this was the idea that Bazaine tried to inculcate in the interview which he had with Napoleon. By the last packet a chief of staff and an employee of the finance department have gone out and perhaps they go out to modify in accordance with this idea. The instructions of Saillard for the packet was even delayed to wait for them.

It is stated that the minister of the republic condescends to this government even to weakness he flatters and praises it incessantly with real recklessness.

Secretary Seward under date of March 4, 1866, thanks Senor Romero for this and other information, contributing so largely to his knowledge of the events transpiring with regard to Mexico.

The Speaker to-day laid before the House a report of the operations of the National Academy of sciences during the past year, from which it appears that the committee on weights and measures and coinage are in favor of adopting a decimal system, and that in their opinion the metrical system of weights and measures, though not without defects, is, all things considered, the best in use.

To-day Senator Nye's bill was introduced for the relief of certain contractors for the construction of vessels of war and steam machinery.

The Commission consisting of Gen. Salgar for Columbia and Col. Biddle for the U. S, with Sir Frederick Bruce as the Umpire, met yesterday and to-day to hear the arguments in the privateer cases growing out of the Spanish wars with the South American States.

As many applications continue to be made for copies of Mr. Bancroft's oration on the death of President Lincoln, it will be of interest to learn that several months will elapse before it is published, as a steel plate likeness of the deceased is being prepared to accompany it.

A report has generally prevailed among members of Congress to-day that the President will veto the civil rights bill.

Maj-Gen. Thomas has in accordance with the request of the committee on the conduct of the war prepared a narrative of all the operations of the Army of the Cumberland. This will finish the history of the war under the auspices of that committee.

CINCINNATI, Mar. 22.

The storm Tuesday night was very damaging to property in the neighborhood of Connersville, Indiana. Several buildings were blown down, and one of the piers of the Cincinnati & Indianapolis Junction Railroad was destroyed. A freight train ran into the chasm and the engineer and fireman were severely injured.

The storm was felt at Indianapolis, Louisville, Evansville, and other points west.

At Hyde Park and Evanston, Ill., there were hail stones of immense size, breaking glass and destroying the contents of green houses.

PETROLEUM CENTRE, Pa., Mar. 22.

A fire, beginning at Ocean well to-day, spread to the tanks of the Ocean Oil Co., the Arctic well, Patterson, Dickey, thence to five wells on the Breeden and Tennant leases, which were all burned.

Three refineries and some thirty buildings were also consumed.

The burning oil emptied itself into the oil creek, presenting a terrible mountain of smoke and flame nearly a mile in length.

The damage is estimated at $150,000. One man was burned to death.

NEW YORK, March 22.

Secretary Seward declines to interfere with Great Britain in the case of Mr. Gonzalez, a native of San Salvador who lost a quantity of merchandize on board the American bark Golden Rule, burned by the pirate Alabama.

Mr. Seward declined to intervene because Gonzalez was not an American citizen nor domiciled in the United States.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 22.

A large and enthusiastic Fenian meeting was held here last night, the State Centre presiding.

An address was made by Daniel Donovan of Boston.

A large number of names were added to the roll and the Irish bonds were freely taken.

ST. PAUL, Min., Mar. 22.

The Dakotah House and Washington House were destroyed by fire last night. Loss $7,000.

NEW ORLEANS, March 21.

Sailed—steamer Oriental for Boston.

BOSTON, March 22.

The following are reasons assigned by Edward W. Green, the Malden murderer, in his petition to the Supreme Court, asking for a writ of error:

First—That the Court had no power to enter judgment and award sentence of death against the defendant, upon his plea, without the intervention of a jury.

Second—That the plea of the defendant, in legal effect, is not such an admission of guilt as will support the sentence passed by the Court.

Third—It nowhere appears in the record that the crime for which the defendant has been sentenced was murder in the first degree.

The case is to be argued before the Supreme Court.

NEW YORK, Mar. 22.

Twenty thousand tons of Scranton coal was sold at auction to-day. The prices were much lower than at the last sale. Lump, $5,50 and 5,60; steamer, 5,62 and 5,77; grate 5,90; egg, 5,90 and 6,00; stove, 6,52 a 6,85; chesnut, 5,35 and 5.62.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 21.

Calvin Pepper, who has been endeavoring to establish a freedmen's colonization scheme at Norfolk, has been arrested by order of Gen. Miles. His case will be investigated at Richmond.

NEW YORK, March 22.

A special despatch from Washington says that the committee on ways and means have been so far unable to agree upon the loan bill, and there will be no report for a day or two.

NEW YORK, March 22.

Steamer St Andrew, from Portland, has arrived.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 22.

SENATE.

The Committee on the Library reported a bill to transfer the Smithsonian Library to that of Congress. Laid over.

A bill was introduced to grant land to Michigan for a ship canal from Lake Superior to Lac La Belle.

The bill making but one judicial district each of California and Louisiana passed.

The Judiciary Committee reported a bill to provide for the payment for quarter-master's stores and subsistence supplies furnished to the army of the United States by loyal persons.

A long debate ensued, but without coming to a vote the Senate went into executive session, and adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr Kasson presented a memorial of the General Assembly of Iowa for Government aid to the Iowa branch of the Union Pacific Railroad.

Mr Kasson introduced a bill to establish a port of delivery at Council Bluffs, on the Missouri river.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the joint resolution reported yesterday, to amend the Agricultural College bill of July, 1862. After discussion, extending through the morning hour, the resolution was recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

The Finance Committee were instructed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the revenue law as to permit disabled soldiers of the federal army to peddle without paying a license now required by law.

The report of the National Committee of Science for 1865 was tabled, and ordered to be printed.

The House non-concurred in the Senate amendment to the bill to authorize the sale of marine hospitals and revenue cutters.

The Senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill was referred.

The Senate amendment to the joint resolution for placing hulks and vessels at the disposal of the commissioner of quarantine, which limits the operation of the law to one year, was concurred in.

Twenty Senate bills and joint resolutions were referred.

The Senate bill to aid the construction of a telegraph line to Cuba, and other West India islands, was considered.

An amendment giving government control of the line in peace as well as in war was offered.

After considerable debate the bill was referred to the committee on commerce.

Documents relative to Mexican affairs were received from the President, covering also a report from the Secretary of State.—Referred to foreign committee and ordered to be printed.

A bill providing in cases of trial for treason and other high crimes or misdemeanors against the government, that jurors having entertained or expressed an opinion shall not be disqualified, was introduced and referred to the judiciary committee.

The Senate's amendments to the deficiency bill were taken up.

The amendment of the 10th amendment, providing for the paying of $1500 for the surveyor and incidental expenses of the reciprocity commission was concurred in.

The amendment striking out the proviso that no portrait or likeness of any living person be placed upon any bonds, notes, securities, or postal currency, was considered. A humorous debate followed, after which the House refused to concur with the Senate in striking out the above proviso.

All the amendments of the Senate were disposed of, and a conference committee on the disagreeing votes asked for.

A motion that the pension committee consider the expediency of placing totally disabled volunteer officers on the army retired list was adopted.

A resolution providing for the appointment by the Surgeon General of a medical commission to visit Constantinople, to inquire into the best means to prevent the spread of cholera, was refered.

Adjourned.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

—Mr. Hoyt will not be able to give lessons to his pupils this week on account of sickness of his wife.

—Rev. Mr. Woodworth will preach in Hammond street church next Sabbath.

GOOD HORSES. Mr. L. D. Hayes of Dexter, has recently sold to Mr. Lemuel Nichols, of the Nichols House in this city, a fine pair of matched greys for $1000.

THE BLOSSOMS. The Lewiston Journal says that the case of the Blossoms of Auburn, charged with an attempt to abduct that "eminent patriot" George N. Saunders, at Montreal, last Summer, will come up for final decision at Montreal next Saturday.—The elder Blossom is still in confinement at Montreal—the younger one having been admitted to bail. Now that Saunders has gone to Europe and O'Leary has died in a drunken fit the government can make no case at all against the Blossoms, and it is believed that a nol pros will be entered and the prisoners discharged. They have been most shamefully abused by the Canadian courts.

—The following is from a paper called the Leader, published by colored men in Charleston:—"WANTED.—A steamship company which will put a line of steamers on the route between this and any Northern city, that will give colored men an opportunity to take passage and be treated as respectable people ought to be. The freight which the colored people have to give to such a line would soon pay. If there was but one steamer they would prefer to wait for her trips."

CHARLESTON, Mo. March 20.

To the Editor of the Daily Whig.

Yesterday has come and gone—with it came all the hosts of the "unterrified."—Notwithstanding all their previous boast we should have upset their whole "coop" had it not been for the terrified, who deserted the Stars and Stripes, and run their country in her hour of need. Yes, these (now the war is over) *un*terrified democrats from Canada, joined to their "confederates," succeeded in electing all the Town officers. Other causes conspired to their success, not the least of which was that the reinforcements from Canada came with double charges as was evident from the fact that the number of ballots (not bullets) much exceeded the number of voters.

It only remains for your illustrious townsman to give up the ghost and comfortably ensconce his mortal carcass in democratic Charleston soil. Perhaps he had better make his arrangements to consummate the business previous to our September election, when the check-list will be used, and peradventure a change may come over us.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

A GOLDEN WEDDING. The fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Pitcher was celebrated at their residence, the house of Mr. N. M. Mathews, of this city, on Wednesday evening, the 14th instant. The living descendants of the venerable couple are two sons and six daughters, all married except one of the sons; ten grand-sons and seven grand-daughters, of whom one grand-son and one grand-daughter are married; and two great-grand-children. Of these, two sons, four daughters, ten grand-children, and two great-grand-children were present. An aunt of Mrs. Pitcher made the fifth living generation of the family assembled in the room. Ten persons were present who witnessed the original wedding, which was solemnized by the late Manasseh Sleeper, Esq. The numerous party was composed almost entirely of members of the family which is extensive, four of Mr. Pitcher's brothers having settled with him in Belfast. After an address and prayer by Rev. Dr. Palfrey, the company partook of an elegant and beautiful wedding repast, and examined the golden tokens by which the descendants of the aged couple had testified their affection. The occasion was an exceedingly interesting and pleasant one to all present. The friends of the venerable couple had good reason to congratulate them upon the serene and happy old age that crowns their long and useful lives, and upon the numerous descendants who surround them, all filling their places in society honorably and well, and by their fair characters reflecting credit upon their parentage.

—Mr. Edmund Goodwin was robbed of his pocket book at the P. S. & P. railroad depot in Portland, one day this week, and some $100 stolen, besides notes, &c. A lady at the depot had her pocket picked about the same time. It is said the city is full of pick-pockets. People cannot be too much on their guard against them.

—The mortality amongst the workmen employed in the Mount Cenis tunnel is so great, in consequence of powder-smoke and bad ventilation, that they have refused to work any more. The work is now at a stand-still.

—The Russian army has been reduced from 1,185,000 men in 1863 to 805,000, a lower figure than that of the army after the close of the Crimean war. The military expenses have been reduced about 36,000,000 roubles, about £5,000,000.

—An ancient Jewish house, it is said, has been excavated in Syria, which by its structure and interior arrangement would seem to belong to the second century B. C. Seven books, it is further stated, have been found in it, viz.: the Pentateuch, the Psalms, and a volume of Hebrew poems hitherto unknown.

—Mr. Henry I. Potter, of Bridgewater, Mass., has constructed a steam engine, which he has built for driving a watchmaker's lathe. This steam engine is seven-eighths inch bore, and one and three-eighths stroke, and has a horizontal cylinder. It has an oval boiler, thirteen inches greatest diameter by eight inches high, which is armed by two kerosene burners. The engine makes about 300 revolutions per minute, works with great ease and is a desirable and practical thing for small purposes. It carries ten pounds of steam.

—Two men, residents at Machiasport Theodore and William Berry, were drowned on the thirteente inst., by upsetting a birch canoe. They were on a gunning excursion. William, as we are told, leaves a widow and four children. The unfortunate men drowned near the shore. The canoe upset first, and they succeeded in righting the craft and got in and were paddling to the shore when the birch again upset, throwing both men out, and they succeeded in getting on to the bottom of the birch all the while receiving encouragement from a woman on the shore, to "hold on," as men were after a boat less than two miles away, by which they could be rescued. Shortly one of them slipped off and sunk, and in a few minutes the other went the same way.—[Machias Union.

—The Atchison Champion says: "A friend of ours recently observing an advertisement in a New York paper, promising on the receipt of twenty-five cents to send a recipe to keep water in wells and cisterns from freezing in cold weather, sent on the above named sum, and received by return mail the following answer: 'Take in your well and cistern on cold nights and keep them by the fire.'"

—Among the recent appointments of 2d lieutenants by President Johnson, in regular army, are the following from Maine:—In the 7th Infantry, C. F. Larrabee, late 1st lieutenant 28th Maine, and Wm. Dodge, late 2d lieutenant 10th Maine; 9th Infantry, Wm. L. Smith, late 1st lieutenant 13th Me; 16th Infantry, C. S. Illsley, late captain 15th Maine; 13th Infantry, Geo. W. Wood. "Perley," who forwards the list to the Boston Journal, says other appointments will soon be announced.

SUDDEN DEATH. J. J. Brown, Esq., the well known broker at No. 70 Exchange St., died very suddenly at his residence yesterday morning in an apoplectic fit. He retired the night previous, in his usual health, but complained of indisposition upon waking in the morning, and in a few moments after expired. Mr. Brown was an esteemed citizen and had been a resident of Portland more than thirty years.—[Argus.

—Briggs has a great faculty of getting things cheap. The other day he had a beautiful set of teeth inserted for next to nothing. He kicked a dog.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS IN BOSTON. At the present time, but few vessels are in this port, and freights are very dull. Next month, or whenever the spring opens the rivers, canals, and harbors, there will be a very active demand for all suitable vessels for the lumber and coal trades. Our ship yards will require immense supplies of Southern lumber, and our receipts of coal at Boston will reach nearly one million of tons. As these cargoes nearly all arrive between April 1st and December 1st, eight months, we shall have on an average some twenty or thirty arrivals each day during the whole of this period, with coal alone.—For a week past the arrivals at this port have been very few, and the clearances from Southern ports for Boston have fallen off.—The arrivals of cotton for some time to come will be very light, the manufacturing establishments having probably supplied themselves for the present, and speculators and consignees are somewhat afraid to operate largely on a dull and declining market.—[Traveller.

OPPRESSION IN NORTH CAROLINA. Mr. S. S. Ashley, Superintendent of schools for the National Freedmen's Relief Association, writes to the Secretary of that society from Wilmington, N. C.

"In Samson county six hundred children, some of them twenty-one years of age, were bound out by the county court, and then by an armed and mounted police force were torn from their homes and carried to a forced and unnecessary apprenticeship. Some of them were not only able to take care of themselves, but were actually doing so."

COMPOUNDING FELONY. The New York World says that Moore, the Concord Bank robber, or rather the receiver and purchaser of the stolen bonds, made by his compromise with the bank officers some $80,000, exclusive of the sums he paid the detectives for keeping him posted before he was caught, and for arranging matters afterward. There are a great many robberies of which the public hear nothing, which are quietly settled in the same way.—[Boston Herald.

The Great Worm Remedy.

IT has been said by more than one eminent physician that more sickness among children is the result of Pin Worms than all other causes:—that worms imitate the symptoms of most other diseases, often producing fatal results, without being suspected. From this cause of so much sickness, every family may have an effectual remedy, by procuring a bottle of

Dr. E. G. Gould's Pin Worm Syrup.

It will remove ordinary stomach worms oftener than any of the vermifuges in the market, and for Pin Worms it has no equal. It will relieve children or adults from all annoyance in twenty-four hours, and effect an entire cure when taken according to directions. It is a mild cathartic, and can be given to the youngest child with perfect safety. It improves the health by removing all impurities from the system.

Childhood and its Visitors.

BY E. L. BULWER.

Once on a time when sunny May
Was kissing up the April showers,
I saw fair childhood hard at play
Before a bank of blushing flowers.
Happy—he knew not whence or how:
And smiling—who would choose but love him?
For up more glad than Childhood's brow
Was the gay heaven that laughed above him.

Old Time came hobbling in its wrath,
And that green valley's calm invaded;
The brooks grew dry beneath his path,
The birds were mute, the lilies faded:
A Grecian tomb stood full in sight,
And that old Time began to flatter,
But Childhood watched his paper kite,
Nor heeded he one whit the matter.

With curling lip, and eye askance,
Guilt cursed upon the scene a minute,
But Childhood's archly simple glance
Had such a holy spell within it,
That the dark demon to the air
Again spread forth his baffled pinion,
And his envy and despair,
Self-tortured in his own dominion.

Then stepped a gloomy phantom by,
Pale, by cross-crowned, night's wold daughter,
And proffered him a fearful cup,
Full to the brim of bitter water:
Says Childhood, "Madam, what's your name?"
And when the beldame uttered "Sorrow,"
Then cried, "Don't interrupt my game;
I prithee, call again to-morrow."

Then Wisdom stole his bat and ball,
And taught him with most sage endeavor
Why bubbles rise and acorns fall,
And why no joy may last forever;
She talked of all the wondrous laws
Which Nature's open book discloses:
But Childhood, when she made a pause,
Wist fast asleep among the roses.

Sleep on, sleep on! Fair manhood's dreams
Are all of earthly pain or pleasure;
Of glory's toils, ambition's schemes,
Of cherished love or hoarded treasure:
But to the couch where childhood lies,
A purer, unalloyed branch is given,
Lit up by rays of seraphic eyes
And glances of remembered heaven!

"Shall not the Judge of all the Earth do Right?"

When a boy, I was crossing the East River, from New York to Brooklyn, in a very foggy day. The company I was with being too late for the steamboat, a ferryman was hired to carry us in a small boat. The ferryman magnified the difficulty of keeping the course as much as possible. When we left the wharf a stranger took the helm. Every eye was fixed on the man who assumed this responsibility, a responsibility from which every other passenger shrank. But now that one of the number had seen fit to take the command, every one seemed disposed to criticise him. There could be no doubt that if he failed of reaching the landing place, he would be compelled to endure the reproaches of every one in the boat, and it soon appeared that some were unwilling to wait for his failure before giving vent to their feelings.

The ferrymen were the first to show their uneasiness by casting glances at each other, which were noticed by the passengers, and regarded as prognostics of ill-success. One of the passengers then asked the stranger at the helm if he did not think he was going too far up the river. The stranger bowed and made answer that if any other gentleman present wished to take the helm, he would resign it to his charge; from which it was readily inferred that so long as he held his place he intended to be guided solely by his own judgment. This answer silenced complaint for a time, and no other individual felt disposed to relieve him of his responsibility.

But the uneasiness of the passengers increased as we proceeded; and when we became entirely surrounded by a fog, and no object in sight by which our course could be directed, the murmurs and conjectures of the company were audibly expressed.

'Why don't he put the helm up?' said one, nestling in his seat.

'We shall come out somewhere near the navy yard,' said another.

'He had better let the helm go, and trust to the ferryman,' said a lady.

'Why don't he keep the tiller to him?' said another.

As the stranger paid no attention to these remarks, his silence was set down for obstinacy; and I am afraid that a few observations were added which somewhat exceeded the bounds of civility.

The stranger again made answer that if any other gentleman wished to take the helm he would resign it.

Just about this time a dark object appeared on the water, and as it became more visible through the fog, it was recognized as a vessel which lay at anchor between the landing places. This convinced every one that, so far, the stranger had steered correctly.—But passing the vessel, it soon disappeared, and surrounded again with fog, murmurs and instructions again followed, and received the same answer from the helmsman.

After a great deal of fretting and needless discomposure, the prow of the boat struck the ferry stairs, and all found that the stranger had steered as straight as an arrow to the place of destination.

Many years have since passed, yet occurrences have frequently brought the event to my recollection. When I find fault with the ordering of Providence—when I have heard men undertake to account for his decrees who maketh darkness his pavilion, and whose ways are past finding out—when I see the good distressed, and ready to murmur at the decrees of Heaven—I remember the man at the helm. We have a pilot at the helm of the universe, who can see through the mists which envelope us.

THE RAILROAD ENGINEER.—One of our railroad engineers, some years since, was running an express train of ten well filled cars. It was in the night, and a very dark night too. His train was behind time, and he was putting the engine to the utmost speed of which it was capable, in order to reach a certain point at the proper hour. He was running on a straight and level track, and at this unusual velocity, when a conviction struck him that he must stop. 'A something seemed to tell me,' he said, 'that to go ahead was dangerous, and that I must stop if I would save life. I looked back at my train, and it was all right. I strained my eyes and peered into the darkness and could see no signal of danger, nor anything betokening danger, and there in the daytime I could have seen five miles. I listened to the working of my engine, tried the water, looked at the scales, and all was right. I tried to laugh myself out of what I then considered a childish fear; but, like Banquo's ghost, it would not down at my bidding, but grew stronger in its hold upon me. I thought of the ridicule I would have heaped upon me if I did stop; but it was all of no avail. The conviction—for by this time it had ripened upon a conviction—that I must stop, grew stronger, and I resolved to stop. I shut off, blew the whistle for the brakes accordingly, came to a dead halt, got off and went ahead a little way without saying a word to any body about what was the matter. I had a lamp in my hand and had gone about sixty feet, when I saw what convinced me that premonitions are sometimes possible. I dropped the lantern from my nerveless grasp and sat down on the track, utterly unable to stand. He goes on to tell us that there he found that some one had drawn a spike that had long fastened a switch rail, and opened a switch that had always been kept locked, which left the track—only about one hundred and fifty feet long—which terminated in a stone quarry. 'Here it was wide open, and had I not obeyed my premonitory warning,—call it what you will—I should have run into it, and at the end of the track, only about ten rods long, my heavy engine and train, moving at the rate of forty miles an hour, would have come into collision with a solid wall of rock eighteen feet high! The consequences, and I dare not even name be imagined nor described, but they could by no possibility have been otherwise than fatally horrible.' No one can here doubt the fact of a special interposition of God, by which from a calamity most terrific hundreds of lives were wonderfully spared.—[Home Monthly.

GIVING.—I have been young and now I am old, and as I stand before God to-night, I declare that nothing ever given in charity is regretted. Oh, no! it is the riches we keep that perish; that which we give away abides with us. It impresseth itself on our character, and tells on our destiny; and the habit of charity for this life may accompany us in the next. The bud which begins to open here, will blossom full in expansion hereafter, to delight the eye of angels and beautify the paradise of God. Let us, then, now and on every occasion hereafter, practise that liberality which in death we shall approve, and reprobate the parsimony which we shall then condemn.

American & Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State Street, opposite Kilby street, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,"
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part needs only to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases. JOHN TAGART."

Important to Manufacturers.
FOR SALE—The best Water Privilege in North Eastern Pennsylvania, with about thirty feet fall of water, supported by a dam of solid masonry, laid in water cement. Supply of water unfailing, even in the driest season. There are now seven wheels running on the property.
Located near the Borough of Honesdale, on the line of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad, from which stock can be delivered directly into some of the shops.
Communicates with New York by Delaware and Hudson Canal, and with Philadelphia, Harrisburgh, Pittsburgh, &c., by rail. The cheapness of coal, and convenience of market communications, makes this a very desirable manufacturing property.
On the premises are four large factories and a first class saw mill.
About 160 acres of Farming lands, with good class farm buildings, and over 100 acres of timber land can be purchased with the above property, if desired.

NICHOLS HOUSE.

The undersigned having leased, for a long term, and thoroughly renovated and refitted the NICHOLS House (late "Dwinel House") in Bangor, has this day re-opened the same to the public accommodation.
This Hotel is centrally located, and in close proximity with the Boats and Cars.
The Proprietor has had a long experience in the "Parker House," of East Corinth, and the "Shaw House," of Newport, and flatters himself that to all patrons he will furnish an agreeable and comfortable home. Every effort and expense will be used to make this House as popular and attractive as any in this section of the State. Having lately purchased the large and enterprising
Livery Establishment
Lately owned by CALEB BILLINGS, Esq., the same will be carried on in all its departments in connection with said Hotel. The undersigned will be ready to furnish teams of all descriptions, and will extend all accommodations to those who may favor him with their calls.
☞ Coaches in readiness for any business at all hours.
Stages leave this House daily for all parts of the country.
☞ Orders may be left at the House, or at the Stable office, where a reliable man will hereafter be found to attend upon the wants of customers.

Lease and Fixtures for Sale
—OF THE—
AUGUSTA HOUSE.

The undersigned being compelled (on account of ill health) to relinquish Hotel business, offers for sale the lease and a portion of the furniture of said House.
This Hotel ranks among the first in the country, and commands a large proportion of the travel. It has one hundred and twenty-five rooms, perfectly ventilated and substantially furnished. Attached to the house are Bathing Rooms, Shaving and Billiard Saloons, &c.
In connection with the house is a large and convenient Stable, and a fine livery stock.
To any one desirous of entering the hotel business, will find this a rare opportunity with comparatively a small capital.

DR. LAROOKAH'S
Sarsaparilla Compound,
For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of
Liver Complaints, Scrofula or King's Evil, Eruptions, and all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches and Boils; Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains in the Bones, Side and Head; for the various Weaknesses to which Females are liable; Dyspepsia, Debility, Emaciation, Dropsy, and all diseases resulting from or in an impure state of the Blood.
IT is invaluable to Nervous Sufferers, and a positive cure for Palsy arising from the abuse of Mercury or Lead.
It is a Tonic as well as an Alterative, and a sure protection from attacks that originate in change of climate, season or life.
IT PERFECTLY EXPELS and their combined symptoms, such as Lumbago, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Bilious Eruptions, &c. When caused by Scrofula taint, this compound is a most effectual remedy.
DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION is often caused by Scrofula, which deranges the stomach, and renders it unhealthy. Indigestion is not always caused by Scrofula, when it is, this Sarsaparilla Compound is a ready cure.
NEURALGIA, HEADACHE and various disorders of the nervous system frequently arise from a low state of the constitutional health, and are much relieved and often cured by this powerful remedy.
ERYSIPELAS, Boils, Tumors, or Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Sores, &c. Moderate doses three times a day will usually effect the cure of the above complaints, but often requires considerable time.
Price one dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.

DR. LAROOKAH'S
ALL-CONQUERING
INDIAN VEGETABLE PULMONIC SYRUP,
A Sovereign Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat & Lungs!
Unsurpassed by any Medical Discovery in the World. DR. E. R. KNIGHTS, Proprietor.
Melrose, Mass.
Price 50 Cents and $1,00 per Bottle.

DR. KNIGHTS'
Oriental Hair Restorer.
After a long series of experiments, this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, from sickness or other causes, have become prematurely grey; and others, when in the prime and yellow leaf of life, would retain, as far as possible, the semblance of youth. Dr. KNIGHTS' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores, preserves faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place any reliance. It has never been known to fail in a single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.
It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.
PRICE 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE.
Prepared by
E. R. KNIGHTS, Chemist, Melrose, Mass.
Sold by R. H. Bradbury, General Agent, Bangor, and by Druggists and Merchants everywhere.
